

Thermal Printer Support

Now YOU can have YOUR own team of SERVICE ENGINEERS

LABELS ARE NOT PERFORMING RIBBONS ARE NOT PERFORMING

How many times have you suffered this comment, knowing that the cause is more than likely to be the printer?

Thermal Printer Support now enables you to offer a full range of technical services from the industry's leading trade only specialist supplier of technical support for most types of thermal transfer printers. Our nationwide network of experienced industry specialist engineers can provide a first class service through you, our resellers, to the end users.

Our technical services include:-

- A full range of on-site annual service contracts for all printing systems
- Ad-hoc on-site support for printing issues
- Technical site-visit support for printing issues
- All types of printer installations
- Printer preventative installations
- Back to back workshop repairs
- Printer operator training
- Full range of spare

Thermal Printer Support Ltd are now fully authorised service partners for SATO™, DATAMAX™, PRINTRONIX™, CITIZEN™ & AVERY-DENNISON™

Our engineers are also factory trained for ZEBRA & TOSHIBA printers.

Using Thermal Printer Support to outsource your technical support ensures faster repairs, effective preventative maintenance routines and reduced downtime for your end user customers, whilst at the same time helping you to reduce your costs, improve service, grow sales and focuses your resources on your core day to day business activities.

That is why Thermal Printer Support is trusted by businesses like yours to deliver the support, knowhow, technical expertise and resources to get the job done.
